Commissioner for Patents

Please see the attached copy of the requested reference.

The period for reply will be reset from the mailing date of this correction to the previous office communication. Applicant submitted a letter noting the error in the previous communication, in this case an illegible copy of a reference relied upon for the rejection, within a one month period after the mailing date of the office action and requested that the period for reply be restarted. The request will be granted as per the guidelines for restarting the time period outlined in section 710.06 of the MPEP.
